

Article - Health - General

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)

§7–803.

(a) In this section, the term “facility” means an intermediate care facility–intellectual disability consistent with § 1905(d) of the Social Security Act.

(b) A resident of a facility may not be transferred or discharged from the facility involuntarily except for the following reasons:

- (1) A medical reason;
- (2) The welfare of the resident or other residents;
- (3) Knowingly transferring personal assets in violation of a contract provision and only to become eligible for Medicaid benefits;
- (4) A nonpayment for a stay; or
- (5) The planned closing of the facility.

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)